

Physical Education and Activity Classroom Questionnaire Content

This is a list of the major topics covered in the classroom-level physical education and activity interview. For more detailed information on the content of the study questionnaires, please visit the project web page at www.rti.org/shpps.

- physical education topics taught in specific courses or classes
- physical education activities or skills taught in specific courses or classes
- the number of hours spent teaching specific physical education activities or skills
- courses or classes devoted to physical education versus courses or classes divided between physical education and other subjects
- the number of students in required physical education courses or classes
- materials used to plan and teach the physical education courses or classes
- methods used to teach physical education courses or classes
- required fitness tests in physical education courses or classes
- student participation in physical education-related community activities
- family involvement in physical education courses or classes
- credentials that teachers of physical education are required to have
- staff development provided to teachers of physical education